CAST BIOGRAPHIES

Rob Attaway (Colonel Mustard) returns to the Allen Shankles Mainstage after previously appearing this season in Guys and Dolls (Harry the Horse) and last season in Murder on the Orient Express (Michel the Conductor) and The Sound of Music (Admiral von Schreiber). He and his wife, Becca, have been married for 20 years and are the proud parents of four children - Claire, Preston, Ellie, and Audrey – who are also ALT Academy students. Rob was a three-year varsity basketball letter-winner at Liberty University and holds a Master's degree from Trinity International University. He is a pastor at Hillside Christian Church and serves on the Campus Advisory Council for West Plains High School. As a musician and songwriter for the Atlanta-based band Honestly, he released two independent albums - Have a Nice Life (2003) and Ghosts of a Brilliant Past (2005). He has since released three albums as a member of Hillside Worship and one solo album. When he is not volunteering at the theatre, he enjoys traveling, reading, songwriting, trivia, crossword puzzles, playing golf, and spending time with his family.

Nels Bjork (Professor Plum) was last seen in the ALT productions of Guys and Dolls (Gambler/Ensemble), Cabaret (Max), Matilda (Miss Trunchbull) and Rock of Ages (Joey Primo). Prior ALT productions include Legally Blonde, Little Shop of Horrors and Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat. Nels has also been seen in the Amarillo Opera's productions of Joshua's Boots and Man of La Mancha. His hobby is performing at Amarillo Little Theatre. Nels would like to thank Zeke Lewis for inviting him to come and be a part of ALT.

Kelbi Havens (Yvette) is making her ALT debut! Previous acting credits include These Scenes, This Order (Remy), The Tempest (Caliban) and Silent Sky (Henrietta – nominated for Irene Ryan Scholarship) with Amarillo College. Kelbi is a Tascosa High School and Amarillo College graduate and currently the Assistant Manager for Summit Park Apartments with goals to eventually move to New Jersey to open a horror themed bar. She would like to thank her biggest supporters: Sophie, Nana, Dania, Madi, Trey; and most of all, her Mom and Dad.

Jeremy Hernandez (Wadsworth) is back after making his ALT debut in Murder...Orient Express (Head Waiter). Previous theatre experience includes Assistant Director for The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe, To Kill a Mockingbird and A Charlie Brown Christmas at St. Andrew's Episcopal School, The Outsiders (Two-Bit Matthews) and A Midsummer Night's Dream (Demetrius) with Amarillo College Conservatory Theater and The Secret Garden (Ben Weatherstaff) with Amarillo Summer Youth Musical. Jeremy is a Caprock High School graduate who will graduate from Amarillo College in Spring 2023, then will transfer to WTAMU in the Fall for his Bachelor of Arts in Theatre Education. Jeremy is currently working with St. Andrew's Episcopal School as an extended day worker, fine arts assistant and substitute teacher. Jeremy enjoys music, film and literature and "I love to spend time with my nephews – Wyatt and DJ."

Lynaé Latham Jacob (Mrs. Peacock) has been directing and performing since she was in grade school. Some favorite shows include Blood Brothers, The Glass Menagerie and Love Letters. Lynae has her Master's in Speech and Theatre Education and is a retired Speech and Theatre Education teacher after 20 years with AISD and 18 years with Amarillo College. Her hobbies include flipping houses, judging UIL One Act plays, giving presentations for grief support groups and serving on the Amarillo Little Theatre board.

Hunter Lee (Cook/Telegram Girl) is a native of Arizona. Hunter's previous theatre experience includes TEXAS: The Outdoor Musical, The SpongeBob Musical, The Sound of Music, Into the Woods, A Few Good Men, The Caucasian Chalk Circle, Theory of Relativity, Suite Surrender, I Love You, You're Perfect, Now Change, and more! She has a BFA in Musical Theatre from West Texas A&M University and works at the Royal Bar just down the road. She would like to thank her fiancé, family and friends for their endless support in her theatre endeavors.

Jackie Sorenson Llewellyn (Miss Scarlett)) was last seen on the ALT Mainstage in Murder... Orient Express (Swing-Hubbard, Princess, Greta) and at the Adventure Space in It's Only a Play (Julia Budder). Other recent credits include Steel Magnolias (Shelby Eatonton-Latcherie), Twelfth Night, Or, What You Will (Olivia) and Southern Hospitality (Frankie Dubberly) with Merely Players. Some other favorite roles include Gypsy (Gypsy Rose Lee), Pippin (Leading Player), Proof (Catherine) and The Rocky Horror Show (Janet). Jackie holds a BA in Theatre and an MA in Communication from WTAMU and is currently a full time Instructor/Dual Credit Coordinator of Speech Communication at AC. Jackie has been happily married to Tyler for 14 years with 3 awesome kiddos to show for it – Jack, Marley and Jolene who are the greatest gifts in her life. She enjoys reading, baking, the arts in general and spending as much time as possible with her family. "I am so grateful to Jason and the wonderful cast, crew and production team of Clue for the incredible fun we have had and the opportunity to be a part of this show. There is magic in the theatre!"

Justin Loe (Mr. Green) is in his 19th season at ALT. Audiences have seen him on the ALT stage most recently in Guys and Dolls (Mission Band/Gambler), Shrek (Big Bad Wolf), Calendar Girls (John), Sweeney Todd, Mamma Mia, Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat, Sister Act, Plaid Tidings, Anything Goes, It's Only a Play, The Best Man, The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee (ALTA Winner), Chicago and The 39 Steps, to name a few. Justin is the finance coordinator at Sparkman Orthodontics. He is also the song leader at Canyon Hills Church of Christ. Justin wishes to thank his parents Ron and Joyce Loe for their continued love and support. "Thank you for supporting ALT."

Kristen Loyd (Mrs. White) was last seen on ALT's Mainstage in Shrek (Ensemble), Once (Girl) and Sweeney Todd (Mrs. Lovett). Previous roles on the ALT stage include Mamma Mia! (Donna), Musical Comedy Murders of 1940 (Marjorie Baverstock), Mary Poppins (Mary Poppins), Anything Goes (Reno Sweeney), and Young Frankenstein (Elizabeth Benning). Away from the stage, she is the proud wife to Ryan Loyd and mom to 2 beautiful daughters. Kristen owns a voice and acting studio in Amarillo. "My two favorite things are family and theatre. I feel very blessed to have the opportunity to work with such an incredible community organization as the Amarillo Little Theatre."

Michael Newman (Mr. Boddy/Chief of Police) holds a BA in Theatre Performance from West Texas A&M University. He is currently working on his MA in Theatre Education with the University of Houston (Go Coogs!) and is the Technical Theatre Director for Amarillo High and Tascosa High. He is also the Acting Coach for Anderson Model & Talent Agency and teaches for the ALT Academy. This production marks Michael's 34th production on the ALT stage. Some of his past credits include Murder... Orient Express (Hercule Poirot), The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Nighttime, Sweeney Todd, Noises Off, Avenue Q, The Pillowman, and Peter Pan. When not working in the theatre, Michael enjoys playing Dungeons & Dragons, painting and obstacle course racing. He also enjoys spending every spare moment he can with his wife, Stacy, their 2 kids, Danlee and Dean, and dog, Kara. Michael would like to thank God for His blessings, Jason for the opportunity, Stacy for her patience, and Bruce Campbell for the inspiration.

Keegan Ried (The Motorist/Backup Cop) is excited to make his ALT debut in Clue after his last gig 30 years ago when he was working as a Johnny Carson impersonator in the living room for his parents' church friends when he was 5 years old. Keegan has an Associate's Degree in Communications from Amarillo College and is currently working toward a Bachelor's/Master's in Organizational Development and Leadership. He is currently a Data Analytics and Cloud Computing instructor at AC's Innovation Outpost. He is also the CEO of Ethos Coaching & Consulting where he provides professional and executive coaching services as a Gallup-Certified Global Strengths coach. Keegan's goal in life is to help others discover their passion, power and edge so that they can take advantage of their incredible potential. "I'd like to thank Kristin McCarrell for her gentle prodding which lead to the fulfillment of one of my lifelong dreams... to be in an ALT show."

Terri Wilson (Unexpected Cop/Backup Cop) is an actor, director and playwright. She has a BFA in Theatre from Eastern New Mexico University and an MFA in Theatre Arts from Texas Tech University. Terri has performed in some 20 college and community theatre productions over the past 35 years. She has also spent time in Los Angeles and Santa Fe in pursuit of her acting career and has had three plays that she has written fully produced at four different venues around the country. Terri has been seen on the Amarillo Little Theatre stage as Juanita in Sordid Lives, Becky in Becky's New Car, and Helga Ten Dorp in Deathtrap. She directed this year's production of Significant Other and last year's production of Calendar Girls in the Adventure Space. Terri is the branch director of the Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center library in Amarillo.

PRODUCTION BIOS

Jason Crespin (Artistic Director) is in his second season as the newly named Managing/Artistic Director. Jason was previously the Academy Director for 15 years and has been volunteering at ALT since 1999. He is a proud 2006 graduate from WTAMU where he was inducted into the Communications Hall of Fame. As the ALT Academy Director, Jason directed and choreographed over 40 ALT Academy productions bringing national attention with many productions. No stranger to the stage, Jason is also a veteran actor for ALT where he has appeared in over 45 ALT productions. Most recently, Jason directed Elf the Musical, Guys and Dolls, Shrek and Murder on the Orient Express. He thanks you for attending live theatre and hopes you consider "finding your place" at ALT!

Ryce Garren (Assistant Director) is an IT Field Support Specialist at Pantex with a BFA in Musical Theatre from Abilene Christian University. He's an Amarillo native, performing in the ALT Academy shows Seussical, The Musical! (Cat in the Hat), and Bye Bye Birdie (Albert Peterson), while also performing in the Summer Youth Musical shows Big River (Huck Finn) and Oklahoma! (Curly). At ACU, Ryce performed in Big Fish (Amos Calloway) and Les Miserables (Thenardier). Most recently, Ryce helped with ALT's Murder...Orient Express (Assistant Director) and performed with his amazing wife Mikayla, the ALT Academy Director, in both ALT's Rock of Ages (Franz) and Matilda (Mr. Wormwood). He's blessed to have the opportunity to help with this show, thanks his family for always encouraging him and gives God all the glory.

Christy Corder (Production Assistant) is no stranger to Amarillo audiences, having performed with both ALT and Amarillo Opera. Her ALT productions include Guys and Dolls (Mission Band), The Sound of Music (Mother Abbess), Mamma Mia, Always a Bridesmaid, Sister Act, Mary Poppins, A Christmas Carol, The Light in the Piazza, and Les Mis. Christy is a graduate of Texas Tech and has been the music teacher for South Georgia Elementary for the last 21 years and is also the recipient of the 2022 ALT Daniel J. Schwartz Award (Volunteer of the Year). Christy has been married to her wonderful husband, Doyle, since she was 19, and has three fantastic kids – Everett (and his wife, Haley), Avery and Truett (and his wife, Kellie). She loves singing, painting (walls – not art), making things for her classroom and anything she can do with her kids.

There will be no intermission for this performance.
