

Greetings!

Thank you for your interest in auditioning for a production here at the Amarillo Little Theatre!

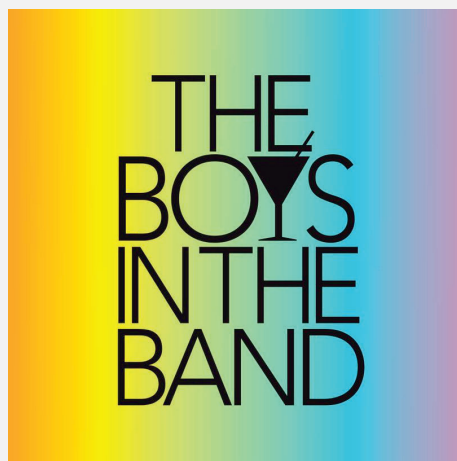

If you've auditioned for us before, welcome back!

If this is your first time auditioning at ALT, we're thrilled to have you! We've been around now for 96 years, and we wouldn't have lasted so long without new people, new talent, and new voices.

Whether you're a veteran performer or you've never been on stage before but really want to try, we'd like to encourage you to audition for shows at ALT.

We're aware that auditioning can be an overwhelming experience, even if you've done it a hundred times before. We've put this information booklet together for you to help you learn a little more about the play, the characters you will be reading for, and to give you some idea of what to expect during auditions and rehearsals.

Break a leg!

About The Play

This ground breaking American play is the first truly honest portrayal of the lives of contemporary gay men. Half a century later, the play proves to be as entertaining, bold, and inspiring as ever.

This comic-drama centers on a group of gay men who gather in a posh NYC Upper East Side apartment for a friend's birthday party. An unexpected guest and a street hustler arrive. The drinks are poured and the music is turned up. The evening slowly exposes the fault lines beneath their friendships and the self-inflicted heartache that threatens their solidarity. Secrets are revealed, arguments are unearthed, and blows are thrown, culminating in a shocking drunken game.

This revolutionary play changed theatrical history by unapologetically putting gay men's lives onstage which had never been seen before in a realistic way.

Time Period: 1968

Setting: Michael's apartment on the East Side in New York City.

Cautions: Alcohol, Strong Language, Mild Adult Themes, Smoking

Characters

- MICHAEL (30s) - male presenting: Host of the party; possesses a biting wit. The play takes place at Michael's apartment. Michael is a lapsed Catholic alcoholic who is undergoing psychoanalysis. He is a smartly groomed writer who has sold a screenplay that was never produced. For the most part, he travels the world, running up bills and getting other people to pay them. He is aging, losing his hair (a fact that is commented on several times throughout the play), and seeing a therapist to help him deal with the self-hatred that he feels about his lifestyle. He is well versed in cinema history and has a movie reference for just about every occasion.
- DONALD (Late 20s-Mid 30s) - male presenting: Donald, who has wholesome American good looks, does not really know the other party guests well. He is a conflicted friend of Michael's who has moved far from the city to spurn the gay lifestyle. He lives in a rented room in the Hamptons, where he has worked scrubbing floors since he dropped out of college. Donald comes to town on Saturday nights to see his psychiatrist, and then he stays at Michael's apartment.
- EMORY (Mid 30s, Hispanic) - male presenting: Large personality. The life of any party but sometimes lacks the ability to read the room. Emory is the joker of the group and the most flamboyantly gay. He is always referring to himself and to the others as "girls" or "Mary." He is the one who made most of the food for the party.
- LARRY (30s) - male presenting: Partner to Hank. Calm and well-mannered with a devilish streak. Larry is a commercial artist. He has had an affair with Donald in the past, but it was impersonal. Although he lives with Hank, Larry is reluctant to commit to a monogamous relationship, feeling that such a thing is unrealistic.
- HANK (30s-40s) - male presenting: Partner to Larry. Sometimes passes as straight. Hank left his wife and two children to live with Larry. He is a schoolteacher.

Characters

- BERNARD (30s, African American) - male presenting: Ivy League graduate with pronounced tact and patience. Bernard is someone who still pines for the wealthy white boy of the house where his mother was a maid.
- COWBOY (20s,) - male presenting: A muscle-bound escort dressed in a cowboy outfit. Energetic and kind, but not too bright. He wants to get home early and get to bed because he hurt his heel while doing chinups. Throughout the play, he asks naive questions, unable to keep up with the witty banter of the rest of the group.
- HAROLD (30s,) - male presenting: Birthday Boy. The driest wit with a hint of self loathing. Concerned about growing older. He is morose at losing his youthful good looks. Harold copes with the depression and self-loathing that he feels by taking drugs. Commenting on the issue of beauty, he mentions his soul and notes, "If I could, I'd sell it in a flash for some skin-deep, transitory, meaningless beauty."
- ALAN (30s) - male presenting: Currently married. Alan is an aristocratic old college roommate of Michael's who is an uninvited party guest. Alan did not know that Michael was gay when they were in college, so Michael tries to keep it from him. Throughout the play there are several strong hints that Alan has homosexual feelings that he is trying to suppress. Alan is crying when he phones, asking to come over. Michael is afraid that Alan will find out that he is gay, a secret that is lost when Alan enters the apartment to find all of the men dancing together. Alan bonds with Hank after noticing the wedding ring on his finger and stays around him during much of the play.

WAIVER AND RELEASE FROM LIABILITY FOR PARTICIPATION IN AMARILLO LITTLE THEATRE'S 2023-2024 PRODUCTION SEASON.

This waiver and release is entered into by _____ (hereinafter "Participant"), _____ (hereinafter "Guardian") and Amarillo Little Theatre (hereinafter "ALT").

The novel coronavirus/COVID-19 is a highly contagious virus that is primarily believed to be spread through person-to-person contact (thought to be within about 6 feet), as well as via respiratory droplets produced when an infected person coughs or sneezes. However, research is ongoing and we likely do not yet have a full understanding of how the virus spreads. The Center for Disease Control, as well as state guidelines, recommend social distancing (staying at least 6 feet away from others), wearing a mask covering the nose and face in public when unvaccinated, as well as refraining from being around large groups of people.

ALT is following CDC guidelines and recommendations regarding social distancing and mask usage as well as State of Texas capacity guidelines at the time of the events.

In addition, ALT will be taking following extra precautions to help ensure the safety of all participants. Those precautions include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Providing and requiring the regular use of hand sanitizer.
2. Asking participants to monitor Participant's health before arriving to ALT, including monitoring of temperature and COVID-19 symptoms such as coughing, shortness of breath, sore throat. A participant exhibiting symptoms must be kept home.
3. If a participant is ill for their scheduled rehearsal/performance time, they will not be allowed to participate/perform.
4. Crew members may take temperature readings with a no-touch thermometer before admitting any participants into the performance space.
5. Unvaccinated participants will be asked not to enter ALT without a mask. Masks must always be worn properly (i.e. covering the mouth and nose). In the event that the staff and/or instructor feels it is impractical for a participant to wear a face covering (e.g. during dance activity or specific scene work), it may be removed as long as correct social distancing precautions are taken. *PARTICIPANTS MUST PROVIDE THEIR OWN MASK. ALT WILL NOT HAVE MASKS AVAILABLE FOR USE.
6. Participants will be guided when entering and leaving the building to minimize contact with others.

Despite taking these additional measures, ALT cannot guarantee that the participant will not become infected with the novel coronavirus/COVID-19. Additionally, participating in this activity could increase participants risk of becoming infected.

ASSUMPTION OF THE RISK

By signing the agreement below, I acknowledge the following:

I understand that participation in ALT rehearsals, and activities related to, is completely voluntary and at my/my child's own risk. _____ (initials)

I acknowledge the contagious nature of the novel coronavirus/COVID-19 and voluntarily assume the risk that I and my family may be exposed to or infected by the novel coronavirus/COVID-19 by participating in rehearsals and all related activities, and that such exposure or infection may result in personal injury, illness, permanent disability, and death. I understand and assume the risk of becoming exposed to or infected by the novel coronavirus/COVID-19 at ALT as a result from the actions, omissions, or negligence of myself and others, including, but not limited to, ALT employees, volunteers, and program participants and their families. _____ (initials)

I understand the risk of contracting the novel coronavirus/COVID-19 cannot be completely eliminated through any actions of ALT and its employees and agents, and I assume this risk in order to participate in all related activities, of the rehearsals. _____ (initials)
